1. Data Visualization are used to: (1 Point)

   Support recommendations to different stakeholders, share unbiased representation of data, explore a given datasheet

2. Matplotlib was created by John Hunter, an American neurobiologist, and was originally developed as an EEg/EcoG visualization tool. (1 Point)

   True

3. What are the layers that make up the Matplotlib architecture (1 Point)

   Backend layer, Artist Layer, and Scripting Layer

4. Using the notebook backend, you can modify a figure after it is rendered (1 Point)

   True

5. %matplotlib lnline is an example of Matplotlib magic functions (1 Point)

   True